Maryland Charter School Network Sponsors Job/Vendor Fair

The Maryland Charter School Network will hold a job/vendor fair on Saturday, March 10, from 9:30 am –1:30 pm, at Sojourner-Douglass College, located at 500 N. Caroline Street, Baltimore, MD 21205 (adjacent to Johns Hopkins Hospital). The purpose of the fair is to bring together charter school operators with highly qualified, enthusiastic applicants for administrative, teaching, and staff positions. Vendors of products and services that are of interest to charter schools will be present. For prospective applicants, the fair is free, as is parking.

Currently, there are 23 charter schools in Maryland, serving nearly 6,000 students. In 2007, nine additional schools plan to open. For more information about Maryland's charter schools, please visit www.mdcharternetwork.org.
